Axiom Engineering is pleased to announce the opening of our Land Surveying Department.

Scott Wallis, P.L.S. joined the firm today and brings to Axiom over 27 years of land surveying experience. Licensed in Delaware and Pennsylvania, he is qualified to perform boundary surveys, topographic surveys, Global Positioning System (GPS) control & grid coordination work, aerial survey control and construction stakeout. We are excited about our expanded ability to meet your needs. Please notify us if any land surveying needs arise on any of your projects, and we will be happy to provide a proposal for the work.

Construction in our new location continues on the ground floor. We will be holding an open house on Returns Day, Thursday, November 9, 2006. Please stop in during Returns Day and join us.

Thank you very much for your business, it is our pleasure to serve you.
